

Jamy enjoyed a thirteen year career with Hubbard Street Dance Chicago – first with founder Lou Conte, then under the direction of Jim Vincent. He then joined Nederlands Dans Theater in The Hague for three years. Jamy became a member of The Cambrians, a global dance production network, for The Nexus Project: Autumn and Jamy. He has performed in several Lyric Opera Chicago productions as well as with The Goodman Theater. He has been teaching master classes in ballet, jazz and contemporary movement throughout the 50 states and internationally. Jamy holds a BFA in dance performance from Oklahoma City University